

From Ingles, take Rodney Orr Bypass / Highway 129 through town toward McDonalds and Wendy's. You will continue through town to Skyway Convenience Store.
1.5 miles on left

Turn left at Skyway Convenience store
toward the NC Forest Service office /
Cherokee Skyway. Continue on this road for until you reach a "Y."

At the "Y," turn right onto 143 West.
Continue on this road past Thunder Mountain General Store.

As you drive past Thunder Mountain General Store, it will be on your right. This is a great stop for any last-minute necessities and gasoline. From here, continue ahead for 1.8 miles and turn left at West Buffalo Road.

Turn left at West Buffalo road / toward Cedar Cliff Baptist Church. Do not continue across the bridge. Remain on this road for 4.5 miles.

Be sure to keep right at this curve. Do not enter the gravel ahead or to the left. Keep right on West Buffalo Road.

Continue straight when road turns to gravel. It will seem like you are driving through someone's farm. You are going the right way. Stream to the right, farm to the left. Continue for .5 miles until you reach Huffman Creek Road on right.

Turn right onto Huffman Creek Road. You will cross the Ray Stewart Memorial Bridge. Continue straight on this road for 2.2 miles.

Keep right up the hill at the State Maintenance Sign toward Huffman Creek Retreat.

When you see the sign for Huffman Creek Retreat, you have arrived! Continue down the drive on the left. For Homestead turn down the first drive on the right. For Chestnut, turn down the first drive on the left, for The Barn and Hemlock continue straight ahead. Hemlock will be at the top of the hill straight ahead.